SEMANA 1 (from October 25 to 29) ACTIVIDAD INICIAL: Warming up.

Make a brainstorming about the email vocabulary. Be so creative.

CONTEXTUALIZACIÓN:

Email structure

The first thing you need to know is the different parts of an email, and these are:

- . Greetings: we greet the other person (i.e. say "hi" or "hello").
- Opening paragraph: we react to the other person's news and ask them how they are feeling and whatever else you feel is appropriate.
- Main paragraph 1: in this paragraph we deal with the first important point, which we can identify in the instructions.
- Main paragraph 2: if there is a different point to deal with, this paragraph will do so.
- . (We might have more main paragraphs, depending on the task.)
- Closing paragraph: in this paragraph we "start" to say goodbye by wishing the other person well and asking them to reply to your email.
- Goodbye: we use a short expression to say goodbye.
- . Signature: we sign the email with our name.

In general, all emails must follow the same structure, and also, I recommend you following these two pieces of advice::

- Don't write From: y To:, as it is completely unnecessary and Cambridge won't penalise you. Also, you're saving words which you can use in the body of your email.
- Don't write a subject, for the same reason as before.

ANEXOS Annex 1

To:

James Forrester

Date:

6 November

Subject:

Possible help with product design

Dear James,

As you know, we have been working on the new perfume that we are launching in April and we are unsure about some of the packaging details. We have seen some of your creative work in the sales department and we think you have a very good eye for detail.

Do you have some time before close of business this Friday to sit down with us and talk through some of our designs? We would truly appreciate your advice on this. It shouldn't take longer than two hours of your time and we would be happy to clear it with Patricia, your department head, if necessary.

Best regards, Sarah Ford Head of Department Product Design
